How to find Stefans stoga:

- If you are in Felle down town (Landhandel), you drive direction Skåli.
- You let the chappel on the right hand site and reach Skåli after 3 km.
- You drive straight through Skåli an reach a saw mill after about 400 m. 20 m later a small road turns left. On rainy days you should park your car here and walk about 300 m until you reach the point where your tour to Stefans stoga begins.

Tour :

Skåli – Stefans stoga – retour

Start:

You have reached the end of the small road and turn to the right. You follow a tractor's track.

After about 200 m you pass a small creek and follow the track straight ahead.

#03: Storenuten:

After 300 m behind the starting point you can see on the right hand side a hill called Storenuten. It is 467 m high.

#03: Veslenuten:

on the left hand side of Storenuten you see Veslenuten. It is only 13 meter higher than Storenuten and the two hills look like brother and sister.

To find Stefans Stoga you turn left and climb up Veslenuten.

#4: small foot path

You follow a small foot path and after 200 m you climb over a last barrier before you reach Stefans Stoga

Stefans Stoga:

It is a natural hole about 30 m before you reach top of Veslenuten.

The story tells, that
(now comes a brief description of Stefans story)

On top of Veslenuten you have a perfekt view.

In north-easterly direction you see Skåli with the Skålistjønn. If you look to the south, you see the Vedlausfjell. In the opposite direction you find the Havrefjell.

We suggest you rest a bit here and enjoy the fantastic view into the typical Telemark nature.

The way back is easy and after about 700 m you are back on your starting point.
